

International Mini-Symposium - Forefront Research on Food Process Engineering –

Organizer: Japan Society for Food Engineering, International Exchange Committee

Date: June 13, 2018 (Wednesday)
Time: 17:25 - 19:30 h
Place: Tokyo Big Sight, 7th Floor, Conference Room 701, Tokyo
Attendance fee: Free of charge

PROGRAM

17:25-17:30 h

Introductory remarks

Prof. Noboru Sakai, Vice-President of Japan Society for Food Engineering

17:30-18:10 h

Evaluating Food Quality with Fluorescence

Prof. Kokawa Mito, Assistant Professor

Faculty of Life & Environmental Sciences, University of Tsukuba (Japan)

18:10-18:50 h

Supercooling Technology for Extended Shelf Life of Perishable Foods

Prof. Soojin Jun, Professor, Interim Department Chair

Human Nutrition, Food and Animal Sciences, University of Hawaii (USA)

18:50-19:30 h

Eating Quality Research on Rice in China

Prof. Sun Hui, Professor, Cereal Chemistry & Grain Quality Group

Academy of State Administration of Grain (China)

19:40-21:00

Banquet (Venue: to be announced later; Banquet fee: 2,000 Yen)

Registration:

Please send an e-mail with your name, affiliation and willingness to join the banquet until May 31, 2018, to the following address:

Prof. Manabu WATANABE (mwat@kaiyodai.ac.jp)